

John Stewart

Vice President
Fixed Income Securities

I am always working my hardest to build relationships and to provide service while listening to and focusing on my client's goals and objectives. These actions have allowed me to provide consistently high quality service. Each of my investors have different investing goals. Having access to the analytical tools and the depth of trading support here at Coastal Securities Inc., enhances my efforts to be of service to and meet the goals of my client base.

The team work employed here at Coastal Securities, Inc. along with the strong emphasis on interaction between brokers and investors has added value for my customers and the level of service I am able to provide them in the day in day out investment markets.
