

TK Ward

Managing Director

Fixed Income Securities

Since 1968 I have been helping individual investors and portfolio managers fulfill their investment requirements. I am extremely confident that by utilizing both my experience and Coastal's exceptional analytical services and trading capabilities, I shall continue to do so. Being aware that each of my clients is entitled to receive the highest possible level of individualized service, I shall strive to exceed their expectations.

It is my goal, therefore, to provide my clients with the information, product and price that meet their current and future portfolio objectives and needs.
